2010 PACSI Induction Ceremony – A Great Occasion

Vice Consul Alexander Go and Mayor Charlie Lowles inducted PACSI Management Committee

The Induction Ceremony for PACSI Management Committee officers and members were held at the Max Webber Library Function Center on the 24th of July. Over 75 members of PACSI, including special guests Vice Consul Alexander Go of the Philippine Embassy and Mayor of Blacktown Charlie Lowles were present to grace the occasion. They were given the honour to induct the members of the 2010-2011 PACSI Management Committee. In their speeches, they spoke highly of PACSI and its role in delivering settlement services to Filipino migrants. Vice Consul Alex Go even called PACSI the “angels” of Filipino migrants because we are always there to help out kababayans! The induction ceremony is always an occasion to gather our members not only socially but to remind them of what PACSI stands for and what PACSI’s role is in the community. Congratulations, PACSI Management Committee!
